

Services on Sunday 5th July

9am Holy Communion

10:30 am Holy Communion, there will be activities for children in this service

The theme for this Sunday is Living the Dream - In non-ideal Circumstances
Genesis 40:1-44

Events during the week

On Saturday 4th July there is a bigger event for men than Independence Day - yes, it's Men's Breakfast at Holy Trinity. Starting off with hot (or cold) drinks and chat at 8am, the cooked breakfast (with veggie option) at 8:30 and then this month a discussion until close at 9:30.
Advance notice: the next breakfast will be on October 3rd and then every 2 months from then.

Toddlers Tuesday 8:45 to 11 for children under 5 with their caregivers. In church as usual.

Emerging Generations Prayer Tuesday 7 to 7:30 pm online on Teams. Please join in to pray for the process to expand our ministry to Young People and Families and all who are involved in this important area of church life.

Connections Wednesday 10 to around 1pm Cakes, tea/coffee, chat, crosswords, dominoes etc. Ian and Shelagh are away for 2 weeks so we urgently need some people to come in to set up before 10 and to help clear up afterwards. Please speak to Ian, Shelagh, Richard or Sally.

Living with Loss. Wednesday 10:30 to 12 in the Stanley Room

Friday 10th July at 10:30 Funeral of Dennis Wood, a long time member of the church who latterly joined in with Connections.

Giving to Holy Trinity

If you have already adjusted your giving to the church, thank you! If you are still thinking, then please pick up a leaflet at the church entrance and prayerfully consider what you can do, please email Richard our Treasurer at finance@holytrinitysouthwell.co.uk if you need any help with this and to let him know what you have decided.

Christian Comedy blog

Andy Wall has written a Christian Comedy blog and the first one is now available at <https://www.jbharper.com/blog>

Richard's Birthday Ceilidh
